

Bishop Darius Nixon

Bishop Darius J. Nixon is the Senior Pastor and Founder of Inner City Church, New York, in the heart of Jamaica, Queens. For more than thirty years, he has been delivering the unadulterated word of God to audiences young and old alike. Thinker, orator, revelator, prophet, and visionary are just a few words to describe the dynamo that is Darius Jamel Nixon.

In 1999, he was consecrated to the pastorate by his spiritual mother, Dr. Rita L. Speller. In 2018, Bishop Hezekiah Walker consecrated him to the Bishopric. And in 2023, under Bishop Walker's leadership, he was appointed First Vice Presiding Bishop of the Covenant Keepers International Alliance. Bishop Nixon's prophetic gift is accurate and relevant, speaking into the lives of audiences around the world. His delivery is unique, charismatic, and cross-generational – capturing the hearts of believers for three decades.

Those who connect to his ministry consistently experience transformation in their families, their health, their purpose, and their direction. God has entrusted this vessel to harvest souls and empower his spiritual children to expand beyond their limitations.

He is the author of Jumpstart Your Day and a songwriter whose releases include "Lord You Have Made Me Glad," "Determined to Win," and "Hold On."
